Type of Title

Husband and wife, as tenants by the entirety. This is only available for married persons, e.g., "John Q. Smith and Deborah R. Smith, husband and wife, as tenants by the entirety". The law presumes tenancy by the entirety for a husband and wife unless it is expressly declared otherwise. (AS 34.15.110)

Husband and wife, as tenants in common. A husband and wife can choose to purchase property together as tenants in common. A husband and wife are encouraged to seek the services of an attorney before selecting this form of tenancy.

Other persons as tenants in common. Those persons who wish to purchase property together can do so as tenants in common. It is possible for each person to have a different marital status. This example illustrates a possible combination, e.g., "William P. Jones, a married person, Sandra S. Smith, a single person, and Andrew X. Read and Barbara A. Read, husband and wife; tenants in common." There is no right of survivorship for the tenants under this type of tenancy.

Title taken individually. If an application has just one purchaser, whether single or married, that person would select this option.

It may be advisable to seek the services of an attorney if you have concerns about how your estate and property are affected by the above types of tenancy.
